

United States District Court
District of Minnesota

Christopher Roller
(Plaintiff)

Civil Action No. 07-1298 JNE/JJG

vs.

Central Intelligence Agency
(Defendant)

Affidavit

I hereby swear under oath the following.

1. Well so much for wishful thinking affecting reality via oath statement. Oh it would've been nice though.
2. Does not work - Notary publics, when they themselves sign a document with the word "oath" in it, the document is "Truth under Oath" without an oath witness. They can't even lie to themselves on paper, even though they can throw it away.
3. Incorrect - Notary publics, when they witness a signature of a document without the word "oath" in it, verifies under oath the validity of the signature, and verifies that the document is "Truth under Oath". It is a fact. It is truth. Every document they notarize now is the truth. Hmmm (hard to believe, but seems to be what I'm noticing).
4. All notaries are sworn under oath to become a notary, but they don't even know it. Most or all have no idea they were sworn in. They think all they're doing is verifying a signature. Goodness. I can only imagine the # of legal documents signed blindly full of lies before "Truth under Oath". A system setup for deceit via naive notaries are now the best angel magicians on the planet.
5. Not sure - Administers of oath can grant/revoke the privilege to others.
6. Nope - Chris Roller is an oath administrator by default because he is God, making "Truth under Oath" happen. Thought I had something. Took about 15/20 people before somebody signed it.
7. Not sure - All these properties of notaries apply to all oath administrators. If you are sworn under oath as your job, you are locked under these rules.
8. Didn't work - I'm going to try magic trick "Truth under Oath Unsigned" with myself first.
9. Nope - I will then get somebody else to try the trick on another. And it will work, thus I can pass this trick onto others.
10. I wish - Chris Roller will then make global his new trick, and then everybody can do the trick.

11. Probably still mad from yesterday - Then Satan is gonna go ballistic.
12. Notary signed my affidavit declaring I'm officially Superman. Funny, I was trying to lie to her and she shockingly signed it. Then I realized it was the truth.

Respectfully submitted,
