Civil Action No. 06-CV-4098

GE Medical Systems Information

(Defendant)

Motion for Summary Judgment

Motion for Summary Judgment

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(c), Christopher Roller moves this court for summary judgment in the amount of $1 billion for violating South Dakota Human Rights Act disability discrimination.

GE knew I was mentally ill from the first week at Micro-medical. My story (www.mytrumanshow.com) starting making some people nervous. Jennifer Kinstad even wanted me fired the same day I told her my story. She was in fear for her life and the life of her owners at Micro Medical.

As time (years) would pass people started gossiping about my Jesus story. They would get really freaked out when they found out that 911 occurred the same day my hair transplants occurred. They thought I was a false prophet - the devil in disguise, maybe hurt them, maybe kill them.

Then one morning, on Feb 18, 2002, I was asked to leave because of an argument I had seven days earlier with Kevin Impehoven. Recent documents from the elusive defense indicates that the problem was actually Kevin Impehoven, scared that I might run him off the road with my car - during a traffic merging.

I was asked to see a psychologist for two months. During the process, I would try to figure out and explain what may have happened at GE, since GE wasn't talking to me. Turns out I was right about the traffic merging. GE was not talking to me nor my psychiatrist. Instead they asked me to sign a release of rights to feed my family or I would be fired.

GE knew I was disabled from week one. They did nothing to accommodate me and my needs - they did not talk to me about any problems I was having. Instead they threw me out into the streets to die with my wife and two kids.

CONCLUSION

I'm suing GE Medical Systems for $1,000,000,000 for discrimination for mental illness (bi-polar Jesus guy) with intent that I self-destruct, resulting in loss of job, also resulting in pain and suffering - divorce from wife and separation from my kids, and 6 months of suicidal thoughts which I nearly committed, which could have resulted in the death of a future President and the person responsible for godly powers on the planet.

Respectfully submitted,
