Christopher Roller
(Plaintiff)

vs.

George W. Bush
Richard Cheney
(Defendants)

Civil Action No. 07-cv-1675 JRT/FLN

Judgment day has come early for you George Bush and Dick Cheney. I hear you're a religious man. Guess what, God, the Almighty, has arisen, and he's pissed off, not ruling the world yet, and wielding a powerful legal weapon called the truth. Feel the wrath! I believe you killed 3000 people on 9/11 and tried to cover it up by paying off the families to shut 'em up. That must be convenient to use Government money to pay off families like that. Wow! Then start a war based off lies and deceit, and I suspect via godly will-power to convince people going to war would be ok. And now that you've created a mess, we have to clean it up, all to create a very chaotic environment. I believe you like chaos, and are demons, George Bush and Dick Cheney.

On the morning of 9/11, I was getting hair transplants done for my receding hairline. At the exact moment the first tower was hit, the doctor just took out the skin on the back of my head that would results in my first scar. I got the second scar from the same plastic surgeon a few months later, in a follow-up. I receive complements all the time from people asking if I had a lobotomy done. I call these wonderful looking scars my 9/11 scars. My first 9/11 scar seems like an unbelievable coincidence, or with recent evidence, a conspiracy to make me look like I was responsible for 9/11 and terrorism throughout the world.

The 2000 election was incredibly close, almost miraculously close. Almost as miraculous as godly powers are on the planet. In fact I believe that godly powers were being used by the mob/mafia to help rig the election, not just to win, but to show how close the Mafia can make the election, and still win, as though they were taunting me and the whole country with what they can pull off. As a result, this would put George Bush into office. Then in almost identical fashion, the 2004 election was decided on one state, Ohio - not quite a cliffhanger as 2000, but quite rare. With Fahrenheit 9/11 portraying the deception by George Bush, who would vote for him. Amazingly, George Bush won! I do believe that magic was used to rig the election.

Points mentioned on <http://www.votetoimpeach.org/> which point to deceptively creating chaos throughout the world.

1. Seizing power to wage wars of aggression in defiance of the U.S. Constitution, the U.N. Charter and the rule of law; carrying out a massive assault on and occupation of Iraq, a country that was not threatening the United States, resulting in the death and maiming of tens of thousands of Iraqis, and hundreds of U.S. G.I.s.
2. Lying to the people of the U.S., to Congress, and to the U.N., providing false and deceptive rationales for war.
3. Authorizing, ordering and condoning direct attacks on civilians, civilian facilities and locations where civilian casualties were unavoidable.
4. Threatening the independence and sovereignty of Iraq by belligerently changing its government by force and assaulting Iraq in a war of aggression.

I absolutely love how George Bush is taking credit for the improving economy, of course, this is after pumping billions/trillions of dollars of magic money into the economy at the expense of the deficit and our great grandchildren. Well, George Bush and Dick Cheney, you will probably be alive to see those great grandchildren grow up, and then some, and it will probably be behind bars.

Unless you can figure out a way to paste the following statements into the reply of this case, you will be serving 3,000 life sentences for 9/11. That's 30,000 years in prison, and you will be alive for them all. I can almost guarantee it. Or maybe we'll put George and Dick on the front line in the Iraq war and see how they like it when bullets are whizzing past. I mean, that would make sense - to put the people who are making the decisions about the war, actually in harms way to see what their decisions mean. Instead George lives the life, getting oil kick-backs, and swinging a golf club stating "We need to stop these terrorists. Now watch this drive!" How sensitive to those dying soldiers.

20. George Bush does not want to be Bubbatized!

Super hero Trashman is on the scene. I take out the trash, and we're going to determine if George Bush and Dick Cheney are the type of trash I take out.

My campaign is Shock and Awful. Let me explain how this works. What happens is I launch this missile/bomb (Shock), and in 60 days, you have to figure out a way to copy and paste the above statements into the reply in order to avoid the allegations listed. If you don't, it means the opposite, and that's the Awful truth. Then we have a case. Then I get to ask you questions and you cough up the answers under oath, exposing your soul while revealing the "truly" Awful side of George Bush and Richard Cheney.

This is a class action law suit vs. Bush/Cheney for "godly powers" patent infringement if statement 1/6/11/12/13/14 does not show up. Chris is anxiously hoping #14 doesn't show up. If statement 2 doesn't show up in the reply, it means 3000 families will class up as the plaintiff. But you've already paid them off with government money blaming it on the Arabs. I've already exposed one fraud, James Randi, who couldn't deny he had godly powers. What are we going to find out about Bush/Cheney from the missing statements. Murderers?

I don't want to hear any lame excuses by the defense that a lack of statement means nothing. It means you cannot lie to me with a false statement. This is the "fess up" phenomenon.

Again, this is very important. If any of these statements above are missing in the reply, then it will mean an admission of the opposite ("does not" means "does", "has no" means "has", etc.). It's very simple - copy and paste all the statements into the reply, if you can, and I will dismiss this case (with my apologies) and Bush/Cheney will avoid 30,000+ years in prison.

"Godly Powers" patent - Pat#20070035812. http://www.objectforce.com/php/MyTrumanShow_/Legal/Patent/Patent.html

18 § 3584 (c) Treatment of Multiple Sentence as an Aggregate.

18 § 3581 (1) for a Class A felony, the duration of the defendant's life or any period of time;

Damn Bush/Cheney, according to 18 § 3581 (1), we could sentence you to infinity.

For lying under oath, that's U.S.C. 18 §1503 provides for imprisonment for up to 10 years per lie.

Wow, you better figure out a way to copy and paste all the statements into the reply.

CONCLUSION

I believe 9/11 and the War in Iraq was conspired by George Bush and Dick Cheney under the guidance of the mafia, with godly powers at their disposal, in a quest to try to set me up as a false profit, like I am responsible for these events and everything bad in the world. I am suing for possible patent infringement in accordance with U.S.C 35 § 271. I believe Bush/Cheney killed 3,000 people on 9/11, or lied under oath, or had godly powers before 1 Jan 2007, thus fraud, or committed treason, resulting in felonies that would be a Violation of Article VI of the U.S. Constitution, qualifying for an impeachable offense per Article II Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution. 60 days to respond. Time will only tell.
