Subject: Wow!

$25,000 for threatening to sue.

You're either kidding, or off your rocker.

If that's the case, I'm over a billion in the hole.

I seriously wasn't going to persue you right away.

It could be a simple misunderstanding.

I am going to use this email and your reply (or lack) in response to your attack on me.

You can avoid a patent infringement lawsuit by replying with "No employee at Anthony Ostlund & Baer, P.A. has godly powers."

Respectfully,
