Chris:

I am going to forward you the original email that I sent you, along with a statement that we have no objection to you submitting the email or a printed copy of the email into the docket. This will have the same effect as an affidavit and will save the time and expense of preparing an affidavit, having it notarized, etc. It will also be quicker on your end. I will send the email within the hour.

I have not received the affidavit yet.
Please send it or I will reopen the case.

Was wondering. As a courtesy...could you submit your statement:

To follow up on our conversation of this morning, I represent Bosley in Civil Action No. 07-1296 (JRT/FLN) and am writing to confirm to you that Bosley did not try to kill you on 2 Oct 2006, or at any other time.

into the docket, to make it official with the docket. I'm trying to show something in my upcoming hearing and I need the statement entered.

Thank you,
Chris

Chris:

To follow up on our conversation of this morning, I represent Bosley in Civil Action No. 07-1296 (JRT/FLN) and am writing to confirm to you that Bosley did not try to kill you on 2 Oct 2006, or at any other time.

I appreciate your willingness to voluntarily dismiss Bosley as a defendant in this matter and would similarly appreciate it if you would file the dismissal papers with the court at your very earliest convenience. Do you have an idea as to when this might be? Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions. Thanks Chris!

Best Regards,

Alex Gese
