

United States District Court
District of Minnesota

Christopher Roller

(Plaintiff)

vs.

Lakewood Church

(Defendant)

Civil Action No. 07-1296

Complaint Supplemental

Complaint Supplemental

1. Joel Osteen and employees of Lakewood Church have godly powers.
2. Joel Osteen believes Chris Roller is God.
3. Employees at Lakewood Church conduct some of their business by exercising godly powers.
4. Joel Osteen conspired to kill Chris Roller.

In the reply, if I don't see a statement denying these allegations, then it's true. If I see denials of #1 and #2 and #3, then I'll drop this case. If #2 is true (no denial), then I'm God, and should receive tithing back-dated to when the church was first opened. #3 concerns royalties for the use of my patent. If #4 is true, then it's Bubba Time.

CONCLUSION

I'm suing Lakewood Church for patent infringement, in accordance with U.S.C 35 § 271. I want past royalties and tithing, amount to be determined, based on the missing statements in the reply concerning allegations listed above.
